AUDREY DENG

Writer, Editor & Communications Project Manager

KEY SKILLS

Communications & Content: Internal communications, institutional storytelling, editorial strategy, content development, digital communications, social media, newsletters, SEO, CMS, audience engagement

Writing & Editing: Copywriting, developmental editing, copyediting, proofreading, interviewing, research, grant writing, AP style, Chicago style

Project Management: Stakeholder coordination, project management, budgets, timelines, quality assurance, workflow coordination, cross-functional collaboration

Tools: WordPress, Squarespace, Adobe Suite, InDesign, Mailchimp, Substack, Canva, Google Workspace, Microsoft Office, Airtable, Jira, 4D, Trados Studio, CAT tools

---

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Pfizer

Writer, Inclusive Workplace Design Guide | October 2025 – February 2026

- Won a contract to write and edit Pfizer's first-ever Inclusive Workplace Design Guide, producing internal content for workplace experience and inclusion initiatives and a deck distributed across Pfizer offices globally on making workplaces neurodiverse-friendly.
- Collaborated with members of Pfizer CRGs for interviews and feedback.
- Transcribed and edited Pfizer interviews to create narrative colleague-experience journeys, mapping pain points and defining new areas for improvement.
- Conducted research and wrote essays on global workplace design, poetic experience, and hospitality.
- Collaborated with the architecture firm hired by Pfizer to clarify design details and imagery.
- Reported to the Lead of Global Workplace Design, Change Management & Sustainability.
- Applied a human-centered design approach to internal process and operations organization.

Independent

Freelance Writer / Editor | September 2020 – Present

- Serve as sole editor and manager for a multimedia artist's private collection of six self-published written works, overseeing full production from ideation to distribution, including writing, editing, layout and design, proofreading, copyright filing, and printer coordination.
  - Digitized 300+ poems and short stories and distributed 200+ copies of the total works to local charities.
- Wrote articles for a sex therapist's column published on Psychology Today, with editorial review and approval by Psychology Today editors prior to publication. Grew audience by 20% through redesigned newsletters and social media posts related to articles.
- Served as fields magazine's first-ever Web Editor, leading migration of 300+ works of digital fiction, poetry, and arts content through WordPress and Squarespace. Edited and prepared digital content for publication, ensuring consistency with editorial standards and distinctive voice.

- Served as Social Media Editor, developing a cross-platform style guide for Twitter/X, Facebook, and Instagram, including guidance on copy, tagging, imagery, and posting schedules.
- Produced a weekly newsletter promoting new work and engaging the magazine's readership; solicited work from emerging writers and maintained relationships with contributors.

aLanguageBank

Project Manager | September 2023 – May 2024

- Coordinated linguists and interpreters for government-facing projects, including immigration interviews and emergency communications.
- Maintained quality control across translation workflows, ensuring accuracy between source and final materials through multiple rounds of proofreading.

acolad

Project Manager | September 2021 – September 2023

- Led end-to-end translation and localization projects in marketing and specialized content across multiple media, primarily serving French and Canadian clients.
- Collaborated with teams of linguists, graphic designers, and web engineers to deliver polished final products.
- Managed client relationships, balancing multiple concurrent timelines, budgets, and deliverables.

Columbia University School of the Arts

News and Events Writer | August 2019 – August 2020

- Reported and wrote 100+ published articles covering student and alumni news and events across the Visual and Sound Arts graduate program, including exhibition openings, awards, shows, and publications.
- Applied SEO best practices in headline writing, image-rights research, and caption crafting; adhered to the University Style Guide and flagged novel editorial questions for review.
- Launched an interview column featuring student artists, conducting interviews, transcribing audio, editing content, and photographing work; materials were used in the 2020–21 admissions cycle to promote the Visual Arts program, reaching 2,000+ prospective applicants.
- Expanded coverage scope to include Theatre and Writing departments based on production efficiency.

Columbia Journal

Managing Editor | August 2019 – August 2020

- Oversaw editorial operations and production of a 1,000-copy literary publication.
- Built and managed the annual budget, meeting regularly with editors and the board to track financial needs and provide updates.
- Developed production schedules and coordinated editors and contributors across the full publishing cycle.
- Created digital advertisements to promote contests via Facebook Ads and Google Ads.
- Provided editorial support to deputy editors across nonfiction, fiction, and translation desks.

SELECTED CREATIVE WORK

- Published book reviews, fiction, memoir, interviews, and poetry in Columbia Journal, Academy of American Poets, Mr. Beller's Neighborhood, fields magazine, and Publishers Weekly.
- Self-published zine reviewed positively in The Comics Journal (2026).

- Awarded National Emerging Artists Residency at Tofte Lake Center, Minnesota, to develop a graphic memoir (2025).
- Resident Cartoonist, Seed The Vote, nonprofit organization (2024).

EDUCATION

Columbia University — MFA, Creative Nonfiction Writing, 2020

New York University — BA, Comparative Literature, Phi Beta Kappa, magna cum laude, 2018

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Languages: Mandarin and Cantonese (basic); French (classroom)